- A. What is Degas famous for?
- B. What made Degas different from other impressionists?
- C. Is the painter still well-known?
- D. Who was Edgar Degas?
- E. What problems did the painter encounter?

2. Edgar Degas was a French artist born in Paris in 1834. He was supposed to become a lawyer, but he preferred to doodle so he became an artist instead! He mainly drew and painted pictures of everyday life such as this woman brushing her hair.

3. Although Degas is often described as an impressionist, he didn't really think he was one. He never painted outside, arguing that you need time in the studio to really perfect a painting. But he did draw and paint scenes of everyday life, and especially liked painting scenes of entertainers.

4. Degas is perhaps best known for painting ballet dancers. He was fascinated by them, and wanted to capture their grace and power. He often painted them backstage, getting ready for a performance.

5. In 1880 Degas was starting to go blind, and he found it harder and harder to paint. So he began making sculptures. One of his sculptures is of a little girl who was a ballet student at the Paris Opéra.

6. Edgar Degas died in 1917 due to brain aneurism but even today he remains very famous. Actually, he was a highly celebrated 19th century French Impressionist whose work helped shape the fine art landscape for years to come.
